Wilkinson Woodward Investing in Youth

Trainee Solicitor Laura Kurowski who joined Wilkinson Woodward in 2006, is set to qualify on 22nd August 2008.

Laura who joined the rapidly expanding firm of Solicitors after graduating from Warwick University, has now completed her training contract.

Laura, who comes from Huddersfield, is delighted to be given the opportunity to work with one of Calderdale and Kirklees leading firms, "I have thoroughly enjoyed my time here to date and I am grateful for the support the company has already given me".

After gaining invaluable experience in a number of disciplines, including matrimonial, residential conveyancing and commercial property, Laura is now set to build on her particular interest in commercial property and employment law within the practice.

Managing Partner, Maureen Cawthorn commented "We are committed to investing in high quality graduates, particularly those who have a connection with the region. Laura has made an excellent contribution since joining us and we wholeheartedly welcome her to our growing team."

Laura who has a taste for adventure completed both an abseil and a zip slide for charity which was sponsored by Wilkinson Woodward and is now planning a sky dive next year.

Two further graduates are joining the company in September this year. They are Huddersfield born Richard Edge, currently studying a Legal Practice Course in Manchester and Angeline Sands studying at Durham University.
